

URBAN HARVEST'S

8TH ANNUAL FRUIT TREE SALE & ENVIRONMENTAL FAIR

Shop Houston's best selections of savory fruit trees suited to your garden and learn from local environmentalists.

LOCATION

Emerson Unitarian Church

1900 Bering Drive, West of Loop 610
between Westheimer and San Felipe

SALE & FAIR

SATURDAY 🍏 19 JANUARY 2008

9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Come early. Popular and hard-to-find varieties sell quickly.

FRUIT TREE PREVIEW CLASSES

SATURDAY 🍏 5 JANUARY 2008

SATURDAY 🍏 12 JANUARY 2008

Both Preview Classes 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. at Emerson Westwood Hall
(No talk the morning of the sale)

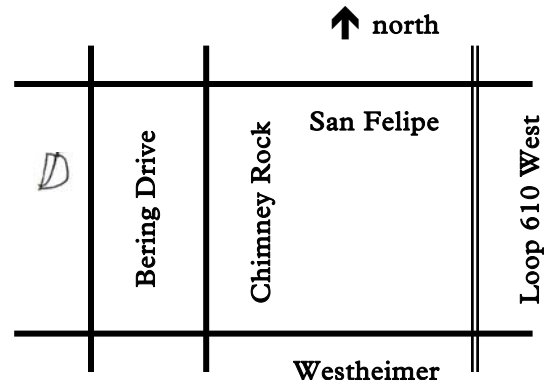

🍏 NEW THIS YEAR . . .

Expanded grounds for easier movement and an abundance of nearby parking.

More trees.

More checkout lines, so shorter wait time.

More volunteers to help you move your trees.

🍏 DIRECTIONS

From the 610 Loop West, exit Westheimer and drive west 1.2 mile to Bering Drive. Bering is one street west of Chimney Rock. From Westheimer turn right and drive north .6 miles to Emerson Unitarian Church, ½ block south of San Felipe on the west side of the street.

Visit our web site at www.urbanharvest.org for more information on the fruit tree sale, fruit tree varieties, talk description and other Urban Harvest programs and activities.